

River Buddies
Preschool Programs
San Joaquin River Parkway
and Conservation Trust

What: A ninety- minute program that includes stories, crafts, exploration, discovery and other activities.

Where: The Coke Hallowell Center for River Studies, a facility located at 11605 Old Friant Road, Fresno, California, 93730.

Who: Specifically designed for children ages 3 through 6 years.

When: Year round, when weather permits. Activities are held outdoors in cooler morning hours.

Why: To connect young children with some of the animals who call the San Joaquin River "home."

If you enjoy making a positive difference, learning about nature, being outdoors, and seeing miles of young smiles, there is a place for you in the River Buddies Program as a docent.
