About Sycamore Island: The River Parkway Trust started operating Sycamore Island in Madera County in 2013 in agreement with the San Joaquin River Conservancy. Sycamore Island has three access points to the river for canoeing and kayaking, and features several miles of dirt roads that provide an excellent surface for trail running, walking, mountain biking, and horseback riding. There are three covered picnic shelters on the 620-acre property, and a bait shop that sells bait, snacks, and beverages.
